

The Council of Science Editors offers four group membership categories, which cover up to a certain number of individuals and provide full member privileges. Organizations are limited to one type of group membership: however, if your organization is large enough to have more than 25 members, a custom option can be setup to add more individuals.

Please review the group membership options below. If you have questions or need assistance, please contact CSE@CouncilScienceEditors.org.

Council Contributor Membership (Up to 5 Members)

- Up to five (5) individual memberships to CSE for members of the organization, publication, or society. Upon receipt of application and payment of dues, all members qualify to vote, hold office, and serve on committees, and are entitled to all member benefits.
- Under the umbrella of the organization, publication, or society membership, individual memberships are interchangeable but current member names must be registered with the CSE office.
- 30% discount on one registration to the annual meeting*
- Under this level of membership, a member leaving the organization will not retain membership in CSE, but the organization will be responsible for updating the roster.

Council Contributor Membership II (6-10 Members)

- From 6-10 individual memberships to CSE for members of the organization, publication, or society. Upon receipt of application and payment of dues, all members qualify to vote, hold office, and serve on committees, and are entitled to all member benefits.
