

How to Set Up Goodreads Notifications:

1. On the upper right corner of your home page, click on your account avatar for a drop-down menu. From the menu, go to Account settings.

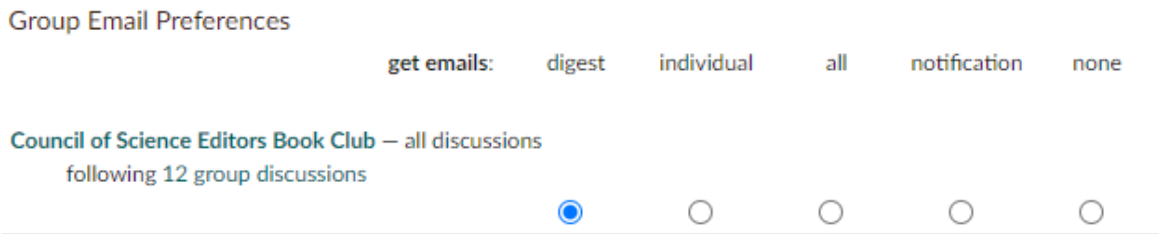

2. Go to the Emails tab.

Account Settings

View My Profile

Profile Settings Emails Feeds Apps Widgets Book Links Purchases

3. Scroll down to Group Email Preferences and find the Council of Science Editors Book Club to set your notification preferences. You can also click on the group discussions link to set your notifications for each discussion thread that you follow on the CSE Book Club page:

Hover your mouse over the email preferences (digest, individual, all) for more information on the type of email updates you can receive.

If you choose “digest,” you can choose between daily or weekly email updates directly below the email preferences:

See all discussions I'm following

When discussions I subscribe to with "digest" have new posts, email me:

You can also choose “notification” if you prefer to see updates in the badges on the upper right corner of your Goodreads page instead of receiving an email:

4. At the bottom of the page, you may also set your account to automatically follow discussions that you respond to:

When I leave comments on other items, follow discussions by default.

Email me when one of my groups is about to start reading a book.

Save email settings

Or you can set it manually for each discussion thread you join by using the check box below the comment box:

comment add book/author (some html is ok)

(preview) Notify me when people reply -- enabled edit