

The 2018 CSE Membership Survey

The 2018 CSE membership survey was completed by 209 members, representing a 25% response rate.

Top Three Member Benefits

Survey respondents across all categories of membership length (except students and those with <1 year in the industry) identified the same top three member benefits.

Networking and Professional Development

Editorial policies, job board, member listserv

Resources, Education, and Skills Training

CSE White Paper, webinars, short courses

Annual Meeting Discount

Members save up to $60

Top Reasons Members Renew

Existing members cited two top reasons for renewing membership.

Annual Meeting

Continuing education and exposure to new developments

Science Editor

Helpful industry news, articles, and viewpoints

What Members Want More Of

Suggestions for additional CSE benefits converged around two main themes.

Career Development and Education

Expansion of topics and offerings

Networking

Regional and role-specific meetings

Work is ongoing to evaluate member feedback and make suggestions a reality.

Looking for a way to help?

Consider joining a committee to help shape the future offerings of CSE. Contact CSE at cse@councilscienceeditors.org to get involved.