

Highlights of the CBE Board Meeting

The CBE Board of Directors met in October 1996 in Northbrook, Illinois. The following items were discussed and approved:

- CBE's 1997 budget projects a net revenue of $1825.
- A subcommittee of the Membership Committee was created to coordinate the activities necessary to seek funding from corporations for CBE activities.
- The Board chose not to bestow a Meritorious Award in 1997.
- In return for the discount CBE members are receiving for the EASE conference in Helsinki in May, the Board voted to invite members of the European Association of Science Editors to register for the 1997 CBE Annual Meeting at CBE-member prices.
- Replacing a May 1996 Board resolution, a bylaws amendment will be presented to the membership that the term of office for the Secretary and Treasurer be 2 years renewable 1 time.
- In the year 2000, the CBE Annual Meeting will be held in San Antonio, Texas, at the new Adam's Mark Hotel.
- A task force was created to develop a plan for establishing a committee of principal editors of scientific journals based in academic and research institutions to act as CBE liaisons at their institutions. This network of journal editors, author's editors, and teachers of scientific writing and research ethics is established for authorship training.
