

New Short Course for Managing Editors

On Saturday, 2 May 1998, the Short Course for Managing Editors will make its debut in Salt Lake City. Organized by Blaire Mossman and boasting an expert faculty, the course promises to follow in the footsteps of its older siblings, the popular Short Course for Journal Editors and Short Course for Manuscript Editors. All 3 courses will be offered immediately before the 41st annual meeting and are designed to complement the excellent educational program.
