

◆ Pitkin, Callaham, Gastel Receive Distinguished Service Awards

Roy Pitkin, Michael Callaham, and Barbara Gastel received Distinguished Service Awards at the 2002 annual meeting. Pitkin and Callaham were honored for their service as chairs of the Editorial Policy Committee. Gastel was recognized for her contributions as editor of Science Editor.

Pitkin chaired the Editorial Policy Committee from 1995 to 1998. During that time the committee developed statements on redundant publication, confidentiality, and conflict of interest. He is now editor emeritus of Obstetrics & Gynecology and professor emeritus of obstetrics and gynecology at the University of California, Los Angeles School of Medicine.

Callaham was chair of the Editorial Policy Committee from 1998 to 2001. Under his leadership the committee developed six editorial policies for the Council. He is editor-in-chief of Annals of Emergency Medicine and professor and division chief of emergency medicine at the University of California, San Francisco Medical Center.

Michael Callaham

Gastel became editor of CBE Views, the forerunner of Science Editor, in 1998. She oversaw the transition to the new name and format in 2000, and she continues to edit Science Editor. Gastel holds faculty appointments in journalism, medical humanities, biotechnology, and public health at Texas A&M University.
