

Highlights of the CSE Board Meeting

The CSE Board of Directors met by conference call on 29 October 2003. Highlights of the meeting follow.

1. CSE will begin negotiations with our management company, Drohan Management Group, on a 3-year contract. The contract will probably include an increase in management fees.
2. The publication process for Scientific Style and Format, seventh edition, continues to move forward. Publication is expected in late 2004 or early 2005.
3. Because of cost constraints, the CSE membership directory will not be printed annually. To continue to provide members with all services, however, CSE will investigate a means by which the membership directory can be downloaded and/or printed from the Web site.

4. Registration for the retreat on scientific misconduct is on target, and scholarships to attend the retreat were awarded to six international applicants.
5. The Membership Committee continues to work hard to promote CSE to members of associated organizations and to faculty and students of colleges and universities.
6. Planning is on schedule for the 2004

CSE annual meeting, in Vancouver, British Columbia. Thirty-two sessions have been organized, and exciting tours and events continue to be lined up.

7. The Sponsorship Committee was successful in gathering sponsorship for the 2003 annual meeting. The group continues to work with the Board and other committees in drafting a policy on sponsorship.
8. About 300 Web sites have links to the CSE site.
9. The next board meeting will be on 31 January 2004 in Washington, DC.
