

Rennie Receives AAAS Award

Drummond Rennie, long active in CSE, has received the 2008 American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS) Scientific Freedom and Responsibility Award. The award was presented during the 2009 AAAS annual meeting. It honors Rennie “for his career-long efforts to promote integrity in scientific research and publishing” and recognizes “his outspoken advocacy for the freedom of scientists to publish in the face of efforts to suppress their research”.

Rennie is a deputy editor of the Journal of the American Medical Association and adjunct professor of medicine at the Philip R Lee Institute for Health Policy Studies, University of California, San Francisco. In 1995–1996, he was president of the Council of Biology Editors, forerunner of CSE. He was also the 2001 recipient of the CSE Award for Meritorious Achievement, CSE’s highest award.
